

A Case for Grace
Sunday, May 21st, 2017
1 Corinthians 1:4-17

Growth Group Fill in the Blank Worksheet
(Fill out during the Sermon)

1. Grace is “God’s undeserved _____.”
2. Spiritual gifting & spiritual insights don't necessarily mean you are _____ with God. We will discover that the Corinthians spoke in tongues and prophesied yet they struggled with _____ in their midst. Understand: Even someone with great theological knowledge can be living in grievous _____.
3. In these first 10 verses, Paul refers to Jesus in every verse, for a total of 11 times. In this emphasis on Jesus, Paul promotes the sure cure for the problems of the Corinthians: getting your eyes off self and on _____.
4. Though division is ungodly, it is not wrong to make distinctions between churches and ministers. God has made different churches and different ministries with different callings and characters, because the job of preaching the gospel is too big for any _____ group. - Guzik
