

Resolving Family Conflicts

Sunday, July 30th 2017

1 Corinthians 6:1-11

Growth Group Fill in the Blank Worksheet

(Fill out during the Sermon)

1. We can expect God, by His Holy Spirit to _____ some of our wrong thinking and doing through this letter.
2. Paul does not say that Christians should have their own court system to handle criminal law. In Romans 13:3-4 Paul says that it is appropriate for the state to handle criminal cases. Christians should, however, be able to handle _____ cases among themselves. – Guzik
3. Is an occasional act of fornication or homosexuality no big deal to God? Of course it is a significant matter, because it goes _____ everything we have been given in Jesus, and because a lifestyle of sin begins with single acts of sin. – Guzik
4. (Wiersbe) Paul pointed out that God created sex when He made the first man and woman, and therefore He has the right to tell us how to use it. The Bible is the “owner’s manual,” and it must be _____.

Notes: _____

Growth Group Worksheet

(Complete at home on separate sheet of paper if needed)

- 1.) Have you ever served on a jury or been on trial? Tell us about it.
- 2.) How would you feel about bringing your civil dispute before the church rather than before a legal judge?
- 3.) Read the list of sins in Galatians 5:19-21 and discuss which sins people tend to excuse and which sins people tend to condemn. Are some sins worse than others?
- 4.) What about homosexuality? What do we learn from Paul’s explanation in Romans 1:18-32?
- 5.) What important truths do you see in 1Corinthians 6:11?
- 6.) Are there some personal lessons in this text that you need to apply to your life?