

What Are You Living For?

Philippines 1:12-26, March 31st, 2019

What gives life most value is not merely the experience of living, but the _____ of your life.

Realize what “the good” really means (Romans 8:28) “The good” doesn’t mean you get everything the way you like it. It means for the good. And the good is God’s _____, the spread of the _____ and the furtherance of _____ kingdom.

God didn’t waste Paul’s time during the Roman imprisonment. God never wastes our time, though we may waste it by not _____ God’s purpose for our lives at the moment.

This thought from the apostle (Philippians 1:21-24) immediately eliminates several false doctrines...

1. The doctrine of _____.
2. The doctrine of _____.
3. The doctrine of _____.
