“A Note from Pastor Mike”

Dear church family, please keep Linda and me in prayer as we travel to Colorado to celebrate our grandkid’s graduations. I always like to remind you of the importance of family. Hopefully, I have properly modeled that priority for you as well. As you know, I keep my marriage as a high priority of my life. And our children and grandchildren should also be high priority. As much as I value “the ministry”, the truth is, “ministry” means very little if you lose your family. So, keep your marriage and family as a high priority. You may have heard it put this way; The top three priorities in a Christians life should be 1. God. 2. Family. 3. Church family. (In that order) I’ve seen pastors forfeit their marriages and families for the sake of “the ministry”. A recent survey asked a group of pastor’s wives, who they felt was most important to their husbands, their ministry or their marriage? A high percentage of pastor’s wives answered, “The ministry is more important to my husband than I am.” This is a sad reflection on the mindset of pastors today. Your first and most important ministry is your marriage and family. Spend quality time with them. Love them. Share Christ with them. Have fun with them. How do you want to be remembered after you leave this earth? Think about it and make the proper course corrections.

“Wives, submit to your own husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives and do not be bitter toward them.” Colossians 3:18-19

“So, husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself.” Ephesians 5:28

“And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.” Ephesians 6:4

“And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.” Nehemiah 4:14

Do a priority check in your life. Make sure your priorities are: God first, family second, and then after all that is in proper alinement, serve the Lord in ministry. We are all called to ministry. But not at the expense of family.
