

Never Stop Praying

Luke 18:1-8 February 7th, 2021

If you don't _____, you won't _____.

Consider the contrasts in this story...

This woman was a _____, but we are the _____ of God, and God cares for His children. The widow had _____ to the judge, but God's children have an _____ into His presence and may come at any time to get the help they need.

The woman had no _____ at court to help get her case on the listing. But when Christian believers pray, they have in heaven a Savior who is _____ (1 John 2:1) and High Priest (Hebrews 2:17-18), who _____ them before the throne of God. We not only have God's unfailing promises, but we also have _____, who helps us in our praying.

The greatest contrast is that the widow came to a court of _____, but God's children come to a throne of _____.

She pled out of _____, but we have all of _____ available to us to meet our every need. Only if we _____, will our spiritual condition be like that of the poor widow. The worst thing you can do is _____.

It's hard to measure how much _____ such constant prayer would do, and how much _____ it would keep us from.
