Shepherd to Sheep

"Seek The Lord While He May be Found"

That's what Isaiah 55:6 exhorts us all to do. And that is what Linda, and I are doing right now. It has been over 2 years since we have taken a vacation. So, I am taking some much-needed time away with my bride to rest, seek the Lord, and spend some quality time together. I've told you all many times that when we take a vacation, we never take a vacation from the Lord. So, Linda and I will be seeking the Lord for clear direction and guidance for the coming year. I encourage you all to do likewise. Seek the Lord. Find His will for your life. Then follow His direction wholeheartedly. I believe our nation is at a crossroads right now. And I believe we will either see revival or a grievous decline into spiritual darkness and national tyranny. Pray with me for revival. Start by praying for personal revival in your own heart. Confess your sins to Him and turn away from them. (2Chronicle 7:14) Then pray for our city, our state, and our country. And pray for Linda and me while we are away, that we might receive rest, refreshment, and clear revelation from the Lord.

Seek the LORD while He may be found, Call upon Him while He is near. Isaiah 55:6 (NKJV)

If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." 2 Chronicles 7:14, (NKJV)

God bless you all. See you in a few weeks,

Pastor Mike & Linda
